

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

EDUCATION AND SHARING DAY

- WHEREAS: Excellence in education is instrumental in ensuring the continued growth and success of our state and nation. In the great State of Georgia, we seek the betterment of all citizens and look to instill each child and adolescent with a quality education; and
- WHEREAS: By preparing our students for the responsibilities and opportunities of the future, education encourages the adoption of ideals and ethics that equip and unite us in working toward a bright future; and
- WHEREAS: The Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Schneerson, a global spiritual leader who dedicated his life to the betterment of mankind, was a tireless advocate for youth around the world. He emphasized the importance of education and good character, and instilled hope into the lives of countless people in America and around the world; and
- WHEREAS: The Rebbe taught that education should include the acquisition of knowledge and preparation for a career to make a better living for oneself as well as for the society as a whole, and that the education system therefore must pay more attention to the building of character, with emphasis on moral and ethical values; and
- WHEREAS: In recognition of the Rebbe's lasting contributions toward improvements in world education and acts of charity, the United States Congress established his birth date as a national day to raise awareness and strengthen the education of our children; and
- WHEREAS: The President of the United States has paid recognition to the Rebbe's vision each year on that day by proclaiming "Education and Sharing Day USA"; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim March 24, 2021, as EDUCATION AND SHARING DAY in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 12th day of February in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-One.
