

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

LAW ENFORCEMENT APPRECIATION DAY

- WHEREAS: The State of Georgia's law enforcement officials, security professionals, and public safety officers are brave and dedicated individuals who protect our citizens, families, and communities across the state; and
- WHEREAS: The men and women who serve on the frontlines of public safety are prepared to face uncertainty and danger for the sake of protecting their neighbors; and
- WHEREAS: These individuals play a critical role in keeping us safe and have put themselves at great risk during the COVID-19 pandemic. Georgia's law enforcement officials, security professionals, and public safety officers face intense challenges and make profound sacrifices to ensure the safety of all Georgians; and
- WHEREAS: Law enforcement officials have faced increased scrutiny over the past year, yet have continued to perform their duties with dignity and honor; and
- WHEREAS: Georgia continues to train and develop the best law enforcement officers and public safety officials. Because of their hard work and devotion, Georgia remains a safe and welcoming state to live, work, and raise a family; and
- WHEREAS: The service of Georgia's law enforcement officials, security professionals, and public safety officers helps to maintain the well-being of the Peach State. These individuals provide an invaluable service to all Georgians and should be recognized for their commitment and bravery; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim August 25, 2021 as LAW ENFORCEMENT APPRECIATION DAY in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 21st day of August in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-One.
