

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

CERVICAL HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH

WHEREAS: Cervical cancer is a disease that strikes over 13,000 American women each year, often in the prime of their lives; and

WHEREAS: Regular cervical cancer screening tests are effective in detecting the disease early when it can be effectively treated, as there are formidable means of preventing cervical cancer; and

WHEREAS: Cervical cancer disproportionately impacts vulnerable communities lacking access to health care and proven life-saving tools; and

WHEREAS: Increasing awareness among patients and healthcare providers alike regarding the best use of these prevention tools is a key component in safe-guarding women's health; now

THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim January 2021 as CERVICAL HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 12th day of November in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-One.
