

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

RONALD REAGAN DAY

- WHEREAS: President Ronald Wilson Reagan, a man of humble background, was employed as an entertainer, union leader, corporate spokesman, governor of California, and president of the United States; and
- WHEREAS: Reagan served for two terms as the 40th president of the United States of America; the second of which he earned the confidence of three-fifths of the electorate and was victorious in 49 of the 50 states in the general election – a record unsurpassed in the history of American presidential elections; and
- WHEREAS: In 1981, when Reagan was inaugurated President, he inherited a disillusioned nation shackled by rampant inflation and high unemployment; and
- WHEREAS: Reagan's sunny optimism and strong belief in the power of the individual revitalized the nation in one of the longest economic expansions in American history, and
- WHEREAS: Reagan's commitment to our armed forces allowed America to achieve "peace through strength," and prepared America's Armed Forces to meet 21st century challenges; and
- WHEREAS: Reagan's Berlin Wall speech helped end the Cold War and contributed to the demise of the Soviet Union, freeing millions of people from the shackles of communism; and
- WHEREAS: February 6, 2025, will be the 114th anniversary of Ronald Reagan's birth and the seventeenth since his passing. In honor of this occasion, the State of Georgia urges the citizens of the state to take cognizance of this event and participate fittingly in its observance; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim February 6th, 2025, as the RONALD REAGAN DAY in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 11th day of December in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Four.
