

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

SOCIAL WORK MONTH

- WHEREAS: March is National Social Work Month, and this year's theme focuses on the skills and expertise social workers offer that bring action and positive results to their communities; and
- WHEREAS: Georgians have entered the social work profession with genuine care for generations, improving the welfare of people, families, and communities across our state; and
- WHEREAS: Social workers work in all parts of our society – including schools, social service agencies, veteran centers, and government – with the primary goal of ensuring basic human needs are met for all people and enhancing their well-being, with particular attention to the needs and empowerment of those who are vulnerable; and
- WHEREAS: Social workers help protect Georgia's most vulnerable residents from abuse and neglect; provide services and support, which help strengthen families that are under stress; and help create new families through adoption; now
- THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim March 2025 as SOCIAL WORK MONTH in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 28th day of February in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Five.
