

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION
GEORGIA COLLEGE
ADVISING CORPS DAY

WHEREAS: The Georgia College Advising Corps, based in the University of Georgia's Institute of Higher Education, has served in schools throughout Georgia for ten years to increase the number of high school students who aspire to and enroll in post-secondary education; and

WHEREAS: The Georgia College Advising Corps is a near-peer college access outreach program that partners with school districts to place full-time college advisers in high schools to promote a college-going culture and support students throughout the college admissions and financial aid processes; and

WHEREAS: The Georgia College Advising Corps meets a critical need in our state, where it is estimated that by 2025 over 60 percent of jobs will require a form of post-secondary education; and

WHEREAS: Today, Georgia College Advising Corps college advisers are improving college access through their work with over 4,400 high school seniors, providing them with the resources and support needed to make informed post-secondary plans, secure financial aid, and attain a certificate or degree; now

THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim May 29, 2019, as GEORGIA COLLEGE ADVISING CORPS DAY in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 6th day of May in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Nineteen.
